INFORMATION WE COLLECT AND HOW WE USE IT

We collect two types of information about website visitors: Personal information (things like your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, etc.) which you have voluntarily submitted to us, and Aggregate information (such as how many visitors log on to our sites, the pages they access, etc.).

In general, you can visit this website without telling us who you are or revealing personal information. You may need to provide some information to participate in certain promotions and surveys, to register with the site, or to receive product information. We collect, maintain, and use personal information you have voluntarily submitted to contact you, and to respond to your comments or requests for information. In addition, we may use personal information to provide you the most helpful products and services to meet your needs and respond to your inquiries.

To better meet your needs, we may supplement the information we collect with data obtained from third parties for the same purposes.

DATA SHARING AND TRANSFER

Tuffy will not trade, sell, or share your personal information without your consent, unless required by law or as disclosed to you when the information is collected, except that information you provide may be used by Tuffy, its franchisee dealers, or third-party business partners to fulfill a specific request such as to fulfill a product order, to analyze your opinion of Tuffy, or to address a question or concern about our products and services. If you do provide us with your consent, we also may share your information with third parties so that they may send you product offers, personalized offers and tips, or ask for your feedback on their products and programs.
